

335

Constantine seems to have favored Arianism and in 335
in defiance of the COUNCIL of TYRE, he exiled ST. ATHANASIUS.

335⁻

Synod of Jerusalem also held in 335⁻

335AD

Synod of Jerusalem

SYNOD of TYLE

Eusebius of Caesarea was to see Athanasius convicted on perjured evidence of cutting off the hand of another bishop subsequently found to be still in possession of two!

335AD

Constantine sponsored the building of the Church of the Holy Sepulcher.

This church has been destroyed and rebuilt several times.

Several Christian denominations have rights to various sections of the church.

Synod of Tyre.

Eusebius saw Athanasius convicted on perjured evidence of cutting off
the hand of another bishop, subsequently found to be still in possession of two

335-

Synod of Jerusalem
also held in 335-

Eusebius was a leading figure

335

Constantine bequeathed the Empire to his surviving sons and nephews

335

Plans to divide empire
among Constantine's 3 sons and 2 nephews.